CollegeTown at West End isn't just a new place to call home. It's the beginning of a new tradition in urban living... a vibrant, exciting neighborhood featuring apartment homes, single-family homes, a hospitality inn, places to shop and places to play.

With an emphasis on quality of life and an environment designed to promote and sustain upward mobility, increase productivity and create wealth, CollegeTown at West End features quality housing for rent and ownership for families with a broad range of incomes.

Ideally located near the heart of "The Colleges" right off I-20, CollegeTown at West End borrows not only a name, but also a theme from the academic world. Programs available in the neighborhood have been designed to mentor and encourage children to study and learn from elementary school all the way through college. And, of course, all the shops and sports and restaurants and recreation the city of Atlanta has to offer are mere minutes away.

When you choose CollegeTown at West End, you've chosen to be part of a unique new revitalized and resurgent area of Atlanta. We look forward to welcoming you to your new home.
